

Incidental expenses allowance for those attending residential training courses

At the Police Negotiating Board meeting on 9 February 2005 it was agreed that the incidental expenses allowance for those attending residential training courses should be frozen at its current level of £4.43 per night. The maximum allowance is £17.77 per week except where an officer has to attend for a week's course of training on the preceding Sunday night and will thus be in attendance for five nights.
