Does HMRC have some of your money?

Over 60% of Police Federation members have been given the wrong tax code by HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) at some time in the last 4 years. As a result they will have paid too much tax without realising, with many still paying too much right now!

These are the findings from over 9,000 Police Federation members who have had their tax codes checked by the UK's leading tax code experts, the Tax Refund Company.

Your employer is using the tax code HMRC sent them to work out how much tax to take off your pay, so it is very important they have the right code. But, under HMRC rules it's up to YOU to make sure the code your employer has used each year is actually right.

Fortunately, if you are one of the 60% that have paid too much tax, you can still get your money back from HMRC. However, few taxpayers know enough about tax to spot errors in their past or present tax codes, or want to try and speak directly with HMRC.

If you earn less than £43,000 pa. or are married, it's especially o check your tax code could see you lose £454 this year alone.

The main facts you need to know:

- Your review is FREE if you do not get a tax refund
- For every £1 refunded, you keep 62p (minimum fee £38*)
- YOU keep 100% of any future savings you make from a new tax code
- Dog Handlers in particular are frequently found to have paid too much tax
